Henderson Point civic group to fight Pass annexation plans

BY DENA BISNETTE
The Henderson Point-Pass Christian Isles Civic Association has planned a special meeting in opposition to an annexation proposal that would place several communities inside the Pass Christian city limits.

The meeting will be 1 p.m. Saturday in the main auditorium of the Gulfshore Baptist Assembly Building in Henderson Point.

JAMES MCQUEEN

According to association spokesperson Gerald Roux, the annexation is expected to include an area extending north from Henderson Point and Pass Christian to Bayou Portage, Bay Colony and Bay Moral subdivisions and the industrial seaway area east to Menger Avenue, north to Demourille Road and east to the Long Beach city limits at Beatline Road.

The association opposes annexation because its members feel the city board based its Feb. 5 decision to begin annexation procedures on an inaccurate feasibility study.

"I'm a licensed engineer," said Association President James McQueen. "I went over that $10,000 feasibility study and it was more of an office survey."

"It was made, I would say, by some high pressure real estate promoters rather than by engineers. I found a lot of mistakes. They even put the annexation area on the wrong side of the Mississippi Sound," McQueen added.

Roux said citizens of the annexation area would face numerous additional expenses if the city carries out its plan. Those expenses would include city taxes and sewage and water connection fees.

"The mayor and the board, in adopting this annexation ordinance in collusion with the city planning commission, did not think of the potential catastrophic effect this could have on retired people with fixed incomes," Roux said.

McQueen said he feels the additional taxes might prompt people with second homes in the area to sell their property.

He also said the tax increase could make the ownership of rental property in the annexation area too expensive to be economically feasible for most people.

With annexation, residents of the area would immediately obtain garbage and trash collection as well as additional city services like fire and police protection, street maintenance and the right to vote in city elections.

Within five years, the city would improve existing streets and drainage and install water and sewer lines where needed and economically feasible.

However, Roux feels the city would be unable to provide those promised services. "It's bad timing because the city wouldn't realize any taxes from the annexed area for at least a year because we've just gone through reappraisal," he said.

He added that Alderman-at-large Fred Kohl had told him Pass Christian would pay those expenses with short term notes, but Roux still objects.

"This is a fantasy. There's no way they can do it without bankrupting everybody, including the people down here," Roux said.

He alleged that the city's sewer system is already overloaded, that the water is of poorer quality than that presently provided to Henderson Point by Johnson Utilities and that the police force is inadequate while the sheriff's department provides adequate protection.

He added that annexation would add about 500 new voters for the city, nearly all of whom are white, thereby diluting the voting strength of a ward that presently has the city's only black majority and first black council member.

Roux said the association has been circulating a petition asking that the annexation be brought to a vote during the next general election.

"We've found that public sentiment is running 20 to one against annexation," he said.

Annexation procedures require the passing of an ordinance announcing the city's intent to annex. No public hearings are required, but the ordinance must be approved by a chancery court.

Roux and McQueen both stated that the association plans to fight the annexation in court. The association is currently collecting donations for a special legal fund to finance their efforts.

EEOC cites Bay mayor

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
A ruling by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission stated that there was evidence of discrimination shown by Bay St. Louis Mayor Larry Bennett in his failure to appoint Robert Butler Jr. as acting police chief.

Butler's attorney, Theodore Lawyer of Gulfport said late Wednesday afternoon an offer of reconciliation will be presented to the city. In the reconciliation offer, Butler will ask for back wages and attorney fees.

"We haven't decided on the matter of reinstatement because of the new police chief," Lawyer said, "but we will probably ask for reinstatement and the opportunity to be promoted."

If the offer of reconciliation is rejected, Lawyer said, Butler will request the right to sue from the EEOC and will file suit for redress.

Following the retirement of Bay Police Chief Douglas Williams last October, Bennett appointed Chief Investigator Murray Ladner as acting chief.

Butler says he had served as acting chief several times before when illness caused the absence of Chief Williams and that Bennett had asked him to serve as acting chief before naming Ladner as acting chief.

Bennett said Wednesday morning that Butler had probably assumed he would be named acting chief because he had served in that capacity before, but that no promises had been made.

"I had received citizen complaints as well as the information that Butler was under investigation by the Mississippi State Highway Patrol that prevented me from naming him as acting chief and led to his suspension," Bennett said.

"In his defense, I have to say that Butler did a good job for the department, but it was impossible to name him acting chief in view of the investigation and the formal complaints," he added.

Butler's attorney said no evidence of any type of investigation had been presented.

"We feel we have ample evidence to prove a case of discrimination and are unaware of any actions of misconduct prior to the suspension of my client," Lawyer said.

"Butler has an excellent record of performance and has received several letters of commendation from the former police chief and the mayor," he added.

"We have made every effort possible to try and work to resolve the problem with the City of Bay St. Louis," Lawyer said.

He added that it will not do either side any good to go to court but that

Hancock School Board extends spring holidays due to strike

BY DENA BISNETTE
The Hancock County School Board decided Monday to extend spring holidays from one week to two weeks in view of the current teachers' strike.

The additional holidays, according to Superintendent Terrell Randolph, take in the week of March 11-15, the originally scheduled spring holidays.

Unless the strike continues and the board takes other action, school will reopen March 18.

Randolph said students and teachers will have to make up the additional five days to meet state standards for the number of days in a school year.

The board has not yet decided when the time will be made up, but discussed the possibility of either extending the school year one week or having classes on Saturdays.

Previous action taken by the board due to strike conditions drew criticism from Beat Five representative Lennette Necaise.

Necaise told the board she felt the action originally moving spring holidays up one week was "hasty" and said she felt the decision had been made before the meeting.

"Last Wednesday night it was obvious that the real school board meeting had taken place prior to our scheduled meeting. Everyone sitting at this table knew in advance that you were going to move the holidays, except me and apparently Mr. Randolph," she commented.

Waveland board, Sen. Taylor to meet on prison work center

BY DENA BISNETTE
The Waveland Board of Aldermen has decided to pursue the possibility of locating a minimum security prison work center in the city.

The board has set a special meeting for 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 12, to discuss the work center with State Senator Gene Taylor and a representative of the State Bureau of Corrections.

The proposed work center is designed to help alleviate crowding at the state penitentiary at Parchman by housing minimum security prisoners.

Those prisoners, according to Mayor John Longo Jr., would be available to provide free labor to the city.

The center may also provide employment for local residents since it will be staffed by psychiatric and social workers in addition to security personnel.

At Tuesday's meeting, the aldermen also discussed redrawing the lines for Waveland's four wards before the next election.

Longo said the ward lines need to be redrawn because the city's population has increased, particularly in existing wards one and four. In Ward Four, for example, new apartments capable of housing about 400 families have been constructed on Waveland Avenue.

Any change in the ward lines must be sent to the U.S. Department of Justice for approval before the next city election, which will be in two years.

In addition, the board was addressed by Judy Barrett, representing the United Teachers of Hancock County and Bay St. Louis.

Barrett asked that the board pass a resolution supporting a pay raise for Mississippi's teachers.

"The strike is not something we're proud of, but we had no choice," Barrett explained.

She told the board that striking teachers from local schools have received "absolutely fantastic" support from the public and invited

Teachers to join chain

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Hancock County teachers will join other Mississippi Gulf Coast teachers Saturday as they attempt to organize a human chain 26 miles long.

The chain, which will include parents and non-teaching citizens, will stretch from Ocean Springs to Pass Christian on US-90.

Interested persons should join the chain by 2 p.m.

As many as 1,000 people per mile has been predicted for this attempt to give "visibility" to support for teacher salary increases, and is directed toward Mississippi's governor and legislature, according to Jerry Caruthers, Mississippi Association of Educators representative.

Local teachers' spokesman Peggy Dutton said teachers will continue to picket although the county school board has extended Spring Holidays for an additional week.

City moves ahead on annexed utilities

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Bay St. Louis City Clerk Edward Favre told councilmen Tuesday that specifications and plans for the Farmers Home project to provide city utilities in the annexed area had been completed.

The council authorized Favre to advertise the job for four weeks and requested that bids be due at 4 p.m. on April 4.

Following the examination of the bids by the project engineer, the bid can hopefully be awarded April 16, Favre said.

The $2.7 million project should be completed within 18-24 months, he added.

In other business, the council declared an emergency situation to make street repairs in the 100 block of Sycamore Street.

Mayor Larry Bennett said a broken pipe had caused the deterioration of the road and the continued use of the unrepared street is posing a threat to water and gas lines located under the street.

Following declaring an emergency, the board voted to get letter bids for the repairs.

BECAUSE IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE...

There's a lot of talk about energy these days. At Mississippi Power Company, we're aware that you read the papers and watch the news. You pick up anxieties about nuclear power, the environment, alternative energy sources, pending legislation... a host of things.

Mississippi Power is concerned about those same things, but we view them from a different vantage point. We're working to deal with these issues night and day. For instance, Mississippi Power and our parent company, The Southern Company, are involved in solar research, synthetic boiler fuel research, and we're looking for even more efficient ways to burn our primary boiler fuel, coal.

But we know the real issue is the way you live, the style of life you've come to expect and enjoy—a way of life that will provide a healthy, productive Mississippi economy. If the future is to be as bright as the past, we'll need energy, lots of it. At Mississippi Power, we're working day and night to make a difference in your future.

Quotables by CUEVAS

Railroad Crossings are being installed at last for Nicholson and Waveland Avenues. It seems it has taken almost 'forever' to get this task accomplished.

We really appreciate the continuing efforts of Waveland's elected officials in seeking assistance for the task.

Waveland Avenue has already been completed with Nicholson Avenue scheduled in a few days. We are very familiar with the Nicholson Avenue Crossing as we lived only a few blocks from it for 29 years.

The signals have been needed for many years and thanks also goes to the Railroad and State Highway Department.

Waveland did have to put up a share on the costs, but were unable to do the job by themselves.

There are still several other railroad crossings in Waveland and Bay St. Louis where signals are needed, and continued work by elected officials can possibly have these in the near future.

The recent rains have caused many yards to be water soaked and many are hoping it will soon dry up a bit in order for gardening to begin.

Another problem we have noted during the extreme rains is the large number of pot holes on our highway and roads.

It appears US-90 in Bay St. Louis is getting more and more everytime it rains. It is about time for the State Highway Department to do an overlay on several miles on both the East and West lanes.

We realize maintenance crews have a hard time keeping up with the pot holes, especially in winter.

Back to the subject of gardening, indications are that there will be a lot of residents planting such favorites as tomatoes, sweet peppers, potatoes, snap beans, etc.

We are hoping to get our garden started as soon as it dries a lot.

Nothing tastes better than a freshly picked vegetable.

Virus type identified

The flu-like illness reported from throughout Mississippi appears to be influenza virus Type A(H3N2), State Epidemiologist Ed Thompson said. The Centers for Disease Control analyzed throat swab specimens from 14 patients recently, and 12 showed the Type A(H3N2) virus. Further tests showed the specimen "are cross-reactive with the A(H3N2) component included in this year's flu vaccine, indicating that the vaccine should confer protection against this strain," Dr. Thompson said.

Physicians statewide have reported large numbers of patients with flu-like symptoms: fever, sore throat, cough, myalgia (muscle aches), weakness and malaise. Several school systems have experienced outbreaks, with several hundred students absent on a given day in some localities.

"Although immunization against influenza is most effective if obtained before the flu season begins, persons in the high risk groups for serious consequences from the flu may still benefit from immunization," Dr. Thompson said. People with chronic respiratory illness and those over 65 are considered high risk.

"The vaccine takes about two weeks to produce immunity," he said, "so anyone immunized now should be aware that he may still get the flu if exposed in the first two or three weeks after the flu shot."

Immunization with the flu vaccine is the best protection, but a new antiviral drug available on doctor's orders can often prevent influenza if given promptly after exposure to the flu. Unimmunized persons in the high risk groups who are exposed to flu should contact their physician promptly to discuss this possible preventive treatment. If the physician prescribes this drug, treatment must begin in the first day or two of illness to be effective.

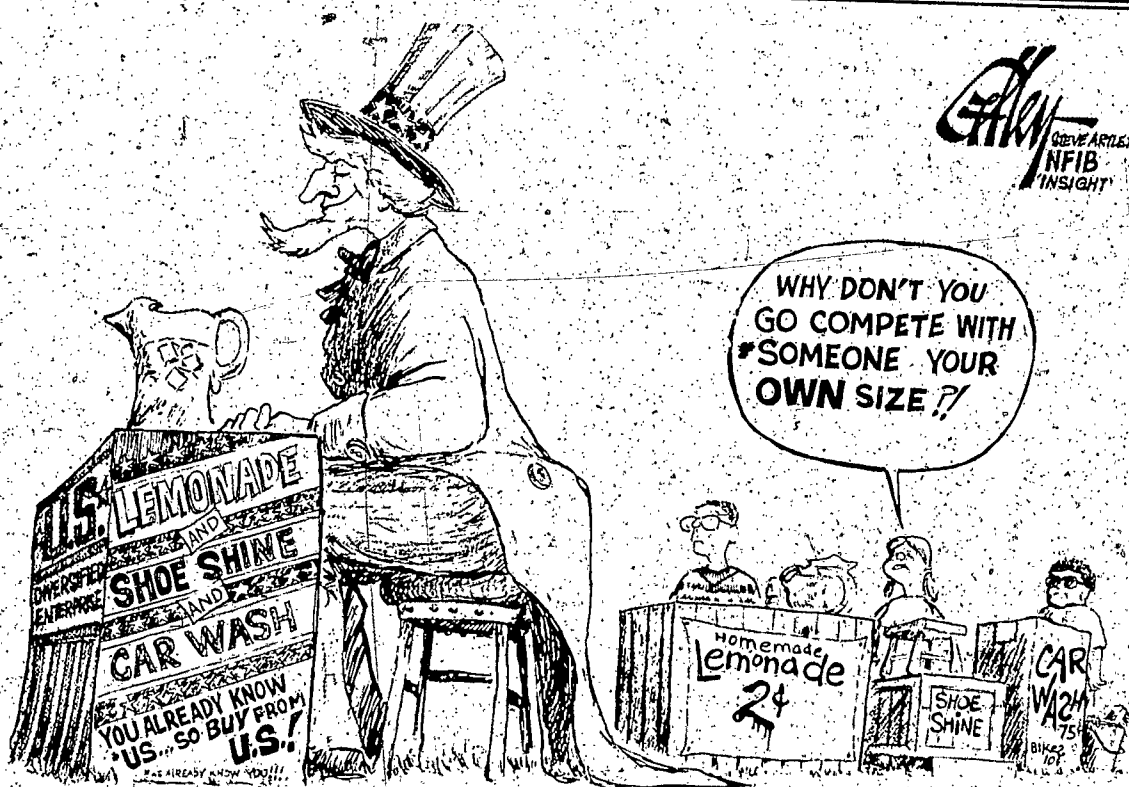

Dr. Thompson cautions parents about giving aspirin to children with influenza. In children with influenza, aspirin has been associated with the development of Reye's syndrome, a rare but serious disorder that affects the liver and brain and can be fatal. He recommended consulting with the family physician since any child with fever may be coming down with flu. Then, for fever and aches, the child may be treated with acetaminophen, available over the counter under the trade name Tylenol, Datril, or others.

SMALL BUSINESS ANGLE

by John Sloan

UNCLE SAM'S BOOMING BUSINESS

are obvious examples of the proper role of government in our society.

On the other hand, John Hanrahan, in his book "Government for Sale," cites a litany of abuses that have occurred when the government contracts to have its work done by business. One example frequently mentioned is Defense Department contractors that submit low bids and then stick the government for multibillion-dollar cost overruns.

Another area of abuse has been garbage collection. Hanrahan notes that of the country's three largest trash haulers, one has admitted to bribing government officials and the other two are under investigation by federal government for other illegal corporate activities.

The solution to that problem is for government procurement people to insist on open competition in the bidding process. Small, independent business owners are anxious to get new business and will provide reasonable bids and good service after they get the work.

Both business and the government are burned when work is done in house. Business owners lose by paying taxes to support a competitor that does not pay taxes. Taxpayers lose, too, because government in-house labor and benefits are more expensive than contract labor. Government loses the tax revenues that otherwise would be collected if the jobs were done by the private sector.

When federal deficits are the cause for so much concern and when many states and localities are struggling to meet budgets with less federal help, it seems logical for government at all levels to look to the private sector for products and services rather than to maintain costly in-house "businesses."

Criticism of Triton Parade prompts poetic tribute

Mar. 4, 1985

The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Editor:

I feel sorry for "Concerned Coastal Citizen" (Letters to the Editor, Sunday, Mar. 4), saddened to sense such bitterness in one who has had the enviable privilege of viewing the beautiful Triton parade in which hordes of spectators of all ages enthusiastically participated on Mardi Gras day.

Perhaps an ode is in order:
AN ODE TO TRITON

You always lighten our day, dear Triton,
When Mardi Gras rolls around.
With trinkets and throws, your show of shows
Is the best free show in town!

Folks gather round from town after town,
From New Orleans to Mobile
And enjoy it all, whether large or small.
How great it makes them feel!

No one expects it to be like Rex
(If one does, it's surely a pity!),
But you have the stuff that's good enough
For Hospitality City!

We Triton fans all love your bands,
Costumes and floats and throws.
Come back next year and let us cheer
Your sensational Show of Shows!

US-90 runs in two directions between Bay St. Louis and New Orleans

March 3, 1985
Dear Editor:

I have just one thing to say to the lady who wrote about the Triton carnival parade—this is not New Orleans, and if she's not satisfied, the highway she took east to get here also runs west.

The Triton organization is still growing, having started with just a parade then a supper dance.

This year they had a complete ball and supper dance at the coliseum. I'm sure when Mardi Gras in the Bay-Waveland area reaches 113 years old it will have grown to what New Orleans is now.

I frankly hope it doesn't because if I wanted New Orleans, I'd live there.

From The Governor's Office

Gov. Bill Allain

Monday I urged Attorney General Ed Pittman to "take all legal steps at your disposal to encourage teachers to fulfill their contracts for the benefit for school children of the state."

In a letter to the attorney general, I also said I did not believe that a meeting of legislative and educational leaders would solve the present teacher strike problem, noting that I and my staff have been in constant touch with legislators and Education Superintendent Richard Boyd.

As you know, the legislature works out its concerted judgement by enactment of legislation. Many divergent opinions exist among the legislators as to the proper solution of the issues involved in the pay raise and insurance proposition.

The propositions advanced by both the Senate and the House have been rejected by the leadership of the teacher unions, as have the suggestions of the State Board of Education. It would seem unlikely then, that the final version of the legislation could be agreed upon by the leadership or that it could in fact be suitable to all elements of the striking teachers.

Earlier Monday I told a group of adult educators that, I don't want the children out of school one day, one hour longer than necessary.

We just have so many dollars. We've got to live within the means we have. I have always been high on education. We have to try to take the pie we all have and cut it up so everyone gets some.

These are trying times in education. We had trying times in education in the 1960s too, but we came out of them and we will come out of this too.

I declined to discuss court action Monday.

The legal aspects of this situation are the responsibility of the attorney general as long as it is pending in court.

I have nominated Jackson attorney Charles A. Marx as chairman of the State Tax Commission, filling the unexpired term of the late A.C. "Butch" Lambert.

Marx's appointment, which requires Senate confirmation, was effective Feb. 1. His term runs through June 30, 1986.

While we regret the circumstances of this vacancy, the urgent nature of Tax Commission business requires immediate action to name a chairman.

There are certain responsibilities that can be carried out only by the chairman, and Charlie Marx brings a diversity of professional experience in law, law enforcement, and education to the Tax Commission. I am very proud to nominate him for this position; he has worked on behalf of the people of Mississippi throughout his career.

Marx presently serves as my executive assistant, a position he has held since 1984. Prior to joining the governor's staff, he served as executive assistant to the Attorney General from 1980-1984.

He was an assistant professor of criminal justice at the University of Southern Mississippi from 1976-1979.

His other legal experience includes service as special assistant attorney general and attorney for the Mississippi Department of Public Safety, 1982-1976, and attorney and administrative assistant for the Department of Public Safety, 1964-1972. He was a patrolman with the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol from 1957 to 1964.

He began his career as a teacher in the Greene County Public schools in McLain.

Marx, 52, completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Southern Mississippi and Mississippi State University in education and social studies.

He received a juris doctor degree from Jackson School of Law; master of education degree from Mississippi College; master of science in criminal justice from the University of Southern Mississippi; and doctor of philosophy in higher education from the University of Mississippi.

Dr. Marx has additional study at the University of Colorado; the FBI Academy; and British Academy of Forensic Sciences in London, England.

He is a widely published author on the subjects of law, law enforcement, and higher education.

Dr. Marx is a member of the Mississippi State Bar Association, Hinds County Bar Association, Legal Officers Section of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, and Commission on Health and Human Services for the Southern Regional Education Board.

He is a former member of the Criminal Justice Section of the National Association of Attorneys General.

Additionally, he has served as a lecturer for the Mississippi Judicial College, Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Training Academy and Drug Enforcement Agency in Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas.

HOUSEKEEPING

A Weekly Summary Of

Mississippi House Of Representatives

Mississippi teachers would get a $2,500 pay raise next year along with new health insurance benefits under a multi-million dollar salary proposal approved last week by the Mississippi House of Representatives.

The bill, a revised version of the measure originally recommended by the House Education Committee and Ways and Means Committee, also calls for a 6 percent sales tax on services rendered by doctors, lawyers, certified public accountants, veterinarians and other professional groups.

The tax on professional services, proposed in an amendment by Rep. Ralph Doxy of Holly Springs, would generate an estimated $130 million or more according to backers.

The passage of the teacher pay-revenue bill highlighted a turbulent legislative week marked by scattered teacher strikes in some districts, concern over state tax collections, and a discouraging report on the potential impact of proposed cutbacks in federal programs on Mississippi's budget.

Bill Simpson, director of the Washington office of the governor, told the Legislative Budget Committee that Administration-backed cuts—if approved by Congress—would have a far-reaching impact on Mississippi.

Simpson said the outlook was "about as grim a picture as we have faced in the 17 years I've been in Washington."

State tax officials said collections for the state's general operating fund were down about $2.7 million for the past month, although sales tax receipts were running slightly above the monthly estimate.

State tax officials said collections for the state's general operating fund were down about $2.7 million for the past month, although sales tax receipts were running slightly above the monthly estimate.

Although general fund collections for the fiscal year still are about $20 million over budget estimates, revenues have fallen short of projections the past two months.

The Mississippi Senate also has approved a teacher pay bill but the Senate and House versions differ in several aspects, including the amount of the salary hike and how to finance it. The legislation is expected to be sent eventually to a House-Senate conference committee to try to come up with an acceptable compromise.

Major features of the House-passed bill include:

—A $2,500 increase in salaries for teachers in the coming year, along with an increase of $420 per teacher unit in supportive services to school districts.

—A health insurance program for certificated school personnel with the state paying 55 percent of the cost, the local district paying 35 percent and the employee paying 10 percent. The state's participation would gradually be phased out so that by the fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, the local district would pay 90 percent and the employee would pay 10 percent.

—An amendment providing that a personnel appraisal and compensation system developed by the State Board of Education shall be implemented in 1986 unless the Legislature takes affirmative action not to implement the plan. The Board of Education already is under a legislative mandate to recommend a personnel appraisal and compensation plan by Jan. 5, 1986.

—A 6 percent sales tax on professional services. This provision replaces a "grab-bag" series of tax hikes that has been proposed earlier.

The Mississippi House also waded through a huge stack of appropriation bills last week, including funds for such vital purposes as vocational and technical education, highways, state health programs, Medicaid, the state Forestry Commission, charity hospitals, aid to dependent children, state parks, and purchases of textbooks for schools.

The largest single allocation of more than $510 million was approved for support of public schools. And floor-handlers pointed out this expenditure would have to be revised upward after final legislative action on the teacher pay bill.

Rocks overcome 8-run deficit to edge East Central, 11-10

The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-Chows overcame a 9-1 deficit to defeat East Central 11-10 in a varsity baseball game played at St. Stanislaus Monday. Winning pitcher was David Pitalo who gave up three hits in relieving starter Matt Rosetti.

Rosetti had trouble finding the strike zone early in the game, walking eight East Central batters in the first three innings, while giving up only two hits.

East Central scored four runs in the top of the first inning.

East Central's starting pitcher Craig Bynum struck out two of the first three batters he faced.

East Central loaded the bases in the second inning but could not score.

St. Stanislaus countered with a lone run in the bottom of the second inning when Pitalo and Jake Welsh walked.

Rosetti laid down a perfect bunt, advancing Pitalo and Welsh to third and second base, respectively.

Donald Pitalo then hit a grounder up the middle, scoring David Pitalo. Phillip Wittmann's fly to center field ended the rally, with the Rocks trailing 4-1.

In the top of the third, East Central exploded for five runs. After Clyde Vaughn walked, David Pitalo came in to relieve Matt Rosetti.

The next three East Central batters hit infield grounders which third baseman Welsh and shortstop Logan could not handle.

These three errors accounted for three unearned runs for East Central.

Tom Burroughs then hit a sharp single to left field, scoring another run. When Mike Garter flied out to Welsh at third to end the inning, East Central had an commanding lead of 9-1.

But the Rocks refused to give up. YaSin Shabazz led off with a walk, followed by a walk to Jay Artigues.

Mark Logan then walked to load the bases. Mike Weems came up and drove in two runs with a hard single to right field.

Wittmann then singled, scoring Cilurso. By the end of the inning, the Rocks were back in the game, trailing 9-8.

East Central picked up an insurance run in the fourth when Vaughn walked. An error by Welsh at third allowed Davis to score, upping East Central's lead to 10-8.

As SSC came to bat in the bottom of the fourth, they faced a new East Central pitcher in Stan Jordan.

Jordan proceeded to strike out two of the four SSC batters he faced. At the end of four innings, the score held at East Central 10, SSC 8.

The fifth inning was to be the last for both teams, as umpire Henry Ross decided to call the game due to darkness.

At the top of the fifth, Tom Burroughs for East Central hit Pitalo's first pitch for a double, but Pitalo settled down to strike out the next two batters and had Mike Garter weakly fly out to the second baseman.

In the bottom of the fifth, Shabazz hit a deep shot to the right fielder for the first out.

Artigues was then hit on the foot by a pitch.

Mark Logan followed with a walk. Weems sharp single up the middle scored Artigues.

David Pitalo followed with a walk. Welsh grounded to the pitcher for the second out. Rosetti then stepped up to the plate, and with two strikes singled past the second baseman scoring pinch-runner Clinton Edwards to win the game for the Rocks 11-10.

"I am proud of the way our team fought back after being down by as many as eight runs. It seems we were a little nervous at first," commented Coach Mike Gemelli.

"David Pitalo came in and got Jay Artigues safe at third.

State Wildlife to ask US for extension

A six year experimental extension of Mississippi's waterfowl season came to an end with the conclusion of this year's hunting period on Jan. 31 but the Commission on Wildlife Conservation will recommend to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service later this year that the extended season hunting period be set up on a permanent basis in the Magnolia State.

At a meeting of the five-member commission in Jackson on Tuesday, Feb. 19, the board passed a resolution which would give Mississippi the permanent option of hunting waterfowl until Jan. 31 each year, if accepted by the service.

Part of the original purpose of the extended waterfowl hunting experiment was to determine how hunting waterfowl until a later time each year would impact waterfowl harvest in our state.

Traditionally, duck hunting here and in many other states has ended about the middle of January. The experimental hunting period which just ended had extended the waterfowl season until Jan. 31.

"Throughout this experiment with a later closing date, we were especially concerned with how this might affect the mallard harvest since this is the major waterfowl species taken in Mississippi," chief of game Seth Mott said.

"So far we've been able to determine that our portion of the mallard kill in the Mississippi Flyway has remained about the same during the extended hunting period."

Mott explained that Mississippi has a relatively low mallard harvest when compared to other states in our flyway. "We've had nothing but favorable comments from hunters about the later duck hunting season and since it has not really affected our harvest, I'm for it."

Agency executive director Lon Strong agrees.

"We think that permanently extending Mississippi's waterfowl hunting period until Jan. 31 each year would not hurt the overall flyway mallard population," Strong said.

He indicated that the agency would recommend to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in meetings later this summer that Mississippi keep its Jan. 31 closing date.

A final decision in the matter will be made by the service.

USM alums seeking sports hall of fame nominations

The University of Southern Mississippi's Alumni M Club is currently accepting nominations for its USM Sports Hall of Fame and those received prior to March 9 will receive immediate consideration, according to club president P.W. Underwood of Hattiesburg.

"Nominations received prior to March 9 will be considered by the selection committee this year and those received after then will be delayed for a year," the president explained. "The 1985 committee will begin its selection process at a meeting scheduled for Monday, March 11."

Former USM athletes who have been out of the particular sport involved for at least five seasons are eligible for nomination, Underwood pointed out.

"Those athletes still active as professionals are eligible if they completed their college careers at least five years ago," he said.

Nominations should be mailed to the USM Alumni M Club, P.O. Box 5017, Southern Station, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5017.

Dynamites win, tie two; lose one

Dillman Dynamite is "exploding," according to coach Kathy Edwards. At the recent Great Day of Soccer sponsored by Coca-Cola the Bay Area Youth Soccer team lost 1-0 to Biloxi on a penalty kick, tied Gulfport 0-0, and beat Ocean Springs, Becca Kinney scored the winning goal.

Saturday, Dynamite won 2-1 against the Goal Busters of Slidell with goals being scored by Michelle Williams and Kim Weinstein.

Jennifer Carter held the Goal Busters' key forward scoreless and is recognized as the outstanding player of the game. Susan Dean who played in spite of the flu receives recognition for her team spirit and dedication.

Sunday, Dynamite tied with Slidell's Gators 1-1. The tying goal was scored by Day Hays. Susanna Cameron was cited by her coach as 'outstanding' as a goalie.

"It is extremely difficult to single out players for recognition because they are all playing extremely well, and most importantly, they are playing as a team," Edwards stated.

SOCCER CITATIONS—Kristy Heitzmann, left, and Kim Weinstein, right, display certificates and ribbons they received for placing fifth and sixth, respectively, for over-all scoring in the girls' Under-12 Division at Coca-Cola's Great Day of Soccer. THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

Concerning the Thessalonians, Paul wrote of the influence and reputation of the church there. (I Thess. 1:7-8)

He then reported that the brethren in Macedonia and Achaia said of them: "For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; and to wait for his son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come." (I Thess. 1:9-10)

This comment gives three stages in the Christian life. Each of these areas are essential to Christian living.

The Christian life is a changed life. They "turned to God from idols." There are many kinds of idols. One of the modern day idols is pleasure. Everything turns on a good time with a large segment of the population.

Another idol of the day is covetousness. Paul commanded the Colossians to, "Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry." (Col. 3:5)

A thief broke into the modest dwelling of Matthew Henry, the celebrated Bible scholar, and stole his money, but the cheerful old gentleman, far from being downcast, turned to his diary and entered this cheerful observation: "Let one be thankful, first, because he never robbed me before; second, because although he took my purse, he did not take my life; third, because although he took all I possessed, it was not much; and fourth, because it was I who was robbed, and not I who robbed."

We need to imitate Matthew Henry's attitude toward wealth. A changed life involves conversion to Christ. Peter appealed to the Jews. "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out." (Acts 3:19)

The American Standard version reads, "repent...and turn again." This change of mind and life is preceded by godly sorrow.

Paul speaks of this in the following words: "For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of; but sorrow of the world worketh death." (I Cor. 7:10)

This change involves putting off the old man and putting on the new man (Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 3:8-14). "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (II Cor. 5:16)

How does one get into Christ? By experiencing the new birth one gets into Christ. (John 3:3-5; Acts 2:36-38; Rom. 6:3-5; 16-18; Gal. 3:26-27)

The Christian life is a serving life. The Thessalonians changed, "to serve the true and living God." The characteristics of the Christian's service are "work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father." (I Thess. 1:3)

We are described as servants. Some writers of the New Testament called themselves servants. (Rom. 1:1; II Peter 1:1; Jude 1:1)

A servant's duty is to serve rather than just refrain from doing evil. Christians must serve man to serve the Lord. In speaking of service to God, Paul said, "Neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things." (Acts 17:25)

The greatest in the kingdom is he who serves the most. "But Jesus called them unto him and said, Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. Not so shall it be among you; but whosoever shall become great among you shall be your minister; and whosoever would be first among you shall be your servant." (Matt. 20:25-27)

The Christian life is a waiting life. The faithful are "to wait for his son from heaven."

To those who were troubled by Jesus' statement about leaving the earth, he said, "In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." (John 14:23)

The Thessalonians believed this promise and were waiting for him. There is not a greater promise.

Christ's coming will be a glorious appearing. (Tit. 2:13) The time of his coming is uncertain. Jesus said to his disciples, "But of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, neither the son, but the Father only." (Matt. 24:36)

The child of God should live in a constant state of waiting and watchfulness. Jesus said, "Watch therefore; for ye know not on what day your Lord cometh." (Matt. 24:42)

The Christian life is the only worthwhile way to live. It is filled with the expectancy of eternal life and the promise that all things work together for those who live the Lord and are called according to his purpose. (Rom. 8:28)

Rate increase denied for Clermont utility

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Mississippi Public Service Commission has issued a decision concerning proposed rate increases for the Clermont Harbor Waterworks.

The commission ruled on March 1 that Johnson Utilities, Inc., the Vicksburg-based firm that owns the Clermont Harbor Waterworks, is not entitled to the proposed increase.

Instead, the commission provided a rate scale which is a compromise between Johnson's proposed rates and rates charged prior to March 1, when the rates set by the commission took effect.

Monthly rates for single family residences and commercial customers were set at $12.50. The previous rate was $8.50 and the proposed rate was $15.

A new charge of $500 during the summer months has been added for customers with swimming pools.

Also set were fees of $800 for first time connections and $10 for reconnection and deposits of $12.50 for residential and commercial customers.

According to Clermont Harbor Civic Association President Mary Caillier, the increases were requested to finance improvements for the water system.

"We're happy the increase isn't more. We realize that Johnson needs the money for improvements and we hope he will live up to his promise to repair the system," she commented.

he and his client will certainly go to court because of what we feel was discrimination against Butler.

Bennett said there is no way as long as the investigation is underway that he could even entertain the thought of reinstating Butler.

"It would be unfair to the citizens of Bay St. Louis, but even more so to the police department," he said.

"The people are aware of the investigation and it would destroy the respect of the police department if people knew we had an officer on active duty under investigation," Bennett said.

He added that it was common practice in law enforcement agencies to suspend an officer under investigation.

Bennett said that reinstating Butler could also be damaging to the morale of the department, which is currently higher than it has been for several years.

"The men and women of this department, like all law enforce-

Waveland Civic slates Saturday ball, seeks parade entries

Waveland Civic Association, sponsor of the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade in that city, is seeking participants for the event.

Individuals or groups wishing to enter floats or marchers in the parade may contact James Lagasse Jr. at 467-4997 or David Garcia, 467-6463.

The parade begins at 2 p.m., Saturday, March 16 at Waveland and Central avenues, traveling from Central to Coleman, down Coleman to Beach Boulevard, east on Beach to Lafitte, north on Lafitte and back to Central, disbanding at the starting point.

Identities of the grand marshal and colleen will be revealed Saturday at the group's annual ball at the American Legion Hall in Waveland. Ball tickets are available through association members.

Registration underway for Diamondhead school

Registration is underway for fall enrollment at the proposed Diamondhead Academy.

With commitment from a sufficient number of parents, the private school, including grades one through six, will be constructed in time to open in September 1985.

More than 150 residents of Diamondhead, Bay St. Louis, Waveland, Pass Christian and surrounding communities gathered last week for an organizational meeting where the school concept received enthusiastic support.

The proposed school is expected to fill a need for quality education near their homes for the youngsters in and near Diamondhead.

Parents interested in more information or in registering for fall may call Bonnie King at 255-1895 or Dianne Bennett at 255-2580.

Strike

She also stated that she felt the board members had been discourteous to Randolph when he attempted to make his recommendation concerning the strike and said they had failed to "give the decision enough thought."

"I move that school board meetings be conducted during the regular scheduled meeting time and not conducted as secret meetings prior to the regular meetings; and that this school board have the courtesy to listen during the presentation of the superintendent's recommendations whether this motion is adopted or not," Necaise said.

The motion died for lack of a second, but Necaise's comments were answered by Board President Billie Payne Lyons.

Lyons said the board members, including Necaise, had discussed possible actions in telephone conversations prior to last Wednesday's special meeting but said those conversations do not constitute a "secret meeting."

"I don't feel there was any secret meeting with board members prior to the called meeting," Lyons said, explaining that Necaise was one of the people she called to discuss the strike and was therefore not left out.

Any opinions expressed during those telephone conversations were opinions and not recommendations for action, since the board can not lawfully take action by telephone poll in a strike situation.

"Our decision was the same as we had made on the prior Saturday," Lyons added. "I think all of the board members sitting at this table acted with concern for the schools and I don't feel you or Terry Randolph were left out."

Randolph again defended his actions in using the emergency authority of the superintendent's office to close the schools, despite the fact his action went against the board's recommendation to try to keep the schools open.

"I was trying to help the board, not hinder it, but I had to go against the recommendation," he commented.

In other strike-related business, Randolph read a letter from Governor William Allain.

In the letter, Allain cautioned school boards that they are responsible for keeping the schools open and any illegal use of their authority during the strike could be subject to judicial action.

He also stated that teachers are expected to fulfill their 182-day contracts and that students must attend classes on at least 175 of those days.

In business not related to the strike, the board authorized Lyons to select the most suitable of five architects offering to work on six new classrooms at Gulfview Elementary School for a six percent fee.

If the architect's fee is no higher than six percent, the Educational Finance Commission will consider the project for funding.

The board had originally selected Fred Wagner of Bay St. Louis, but he declined to charge a fee lower than seven percent.

The board also approved a child fingerprinting program sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Ladies Auxiliary but postponed it until school resumes; approved several travel requests for board members; reclassified Section 16-9-16 from residential for church use; and approved the county forester's request for a 16th section land timber sale.

The board will move to its new offices at Stearns Airport on March 13 and 14. Although the meeting was recessed with board members subject to call on a day-to-day basis due to the strike, the next meeting was scheduled for March 18.

Creativity, effort exhibited in CEES science projects

'Creativity and hard work' were essential elements of Coast Episcopal Elementary School Science Fair, according to Mrs. Jeannine Lindsay, science teacher.

The competition, judged Thursday night, was especially keen in the fourth grade, she said.

The first through third grades presented joint classroom projects that were on display at an open house when parents came to view the individual projects.

Sixth Grade winners include Jarrod White, Hurricanes, first; Betsy Boyce, Growing Plants From Kitchen Food, second; Ben Godsey, Effects of Radiation on Plants, third; Eric Overstreet, Aggression in Crickets, and David Williams, Effects of Fertilizer on Plants, both honorable mention.

Winners in the Fifth Grade include Blair Shellnut, Evaporation, first; Amanda Berry, The Breathing Machine, second; Brandon Smith, Radio-Controlled Devices, third; Joe Barnes, Morse Code, and Karen Kohl, Barometer, both honorable mention.

Fourth Grade winners are Lucy Lindsay, Crystals, first; Clifton Pope, Laser, second; Whitney White, Bar Coding, third; Carolyn Watts, Yeast; Megan Uram, Muscles; Randy Hartwell, Rust; and Mallory Mestayer, How Money Is Made, all honorable mention.

Christ Episcopal High School students also participated in a separate science fair the same week.

at the Pass Christian campus, coordinated by Dr. S. L. Sabharwal, science instructor.

Bryan Overstreet's paper on "Effect of Growth on Large Tadpoles" earlier was accepted by the 1985 Junior Academy of Science Competition and was read on the Mississippi State University campus.

In February, Gretchen Harmon, Connie Lambert, Chip Sandifer, Doug Wilson and Glenda Young attended the State Science and Math Tournament in Jackson.

Harmon placed in the top 11 of the 300 students competing in the biology individual competition.

Winners in the Seventh and Eighth Grade CEHS Science Fair include Malise Marchel, Effect of a Heated Solvent and a Solute, first; Margaret Clarkson, What Fertilizer Works Best?, second; Rusty Roper, Effect of Different Waters on Hair; and Hilary Dattel, What is Color?, tied for third.

Also, Treicia Todd, Hot Air Balloons, and Justin Taylor, Electrical Flow Three Liquids—What Are Their Bases?, both honorable mention.

Students who won in the Ninth through 12th Grades are Lizette Giles, Wind: How Human Structure Effects It; Margaret Murdock, Electrolyte, Conductor or Non-conductor; Ginger Gilmore, Flame?; Parker Deen, Solubility of a Salt; and Greg Thurmond, Mixing and Reaction of Powders.

FACE-TO-FACE WITH AN APHID—This scanning electron micrograph enlarges a plant-loving aphid which is normally about the size of a flea. Aphids satisfy their appetites as voraciously as elephants, size for size, and they spread diseases from plant to plant as they gorge themselves on farms and in gardens. Scientists at the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service and state scientists are studying the habits of aphids for clues on how to deal with them. It's the aphid's trunk that causes trouble. As an aphid crawls over plants, it stops and sticks its trunk into the plants' tissue, sucking out juice. The plants wilt. Yields fall off. If the plants are virally infected the aphid's trunk siphons out the virus and injects it in the next plant. That can be repeated in field after field. Researchers hope to find ways to stop aphids from spreading diseases such as barley yellow dwarf that attacks wheat and oats. USDA entomologist John E. Foster said barley yellow dwarf is increasing in the Midwest, Southeast and Northwest, but wheat and oats that resist the virus can thwart the aphids. (USDA photo)

SSC's Wheeler takes state firsts in physics, math

Students from St. Stanislaus High School competed in the State Science and Mathematics Tournament recently at Mississippi College in Clinton against 77 schools and more than 700 of the state's top students in biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics.

In written team competition St. Stanislaus finished third.

In oral panel competition, the SSC team of Mark Wheeler, Chuck Yarborough, Charles Schutt and Ed Payne won the first round by defeating teams from Moss Point, North East Jones, Indianola Academy, Caldwell High, George County and Lee High.

Individual awards winners include in the competition Welsh, top 10 percent in biology; Cox and Schutt, top 10 percent in physics; Payne tied for second in the state in biology and tied for third in the state in chemistry; Wheeler, first in the state in physics; Payne tied for second in the state in biology and tied for third in the state in chemistry; Wheeler, first in the state in physics, and tied for first in the state in mathematics.

Carey's Coast campus slated for $2.5 million improvement

William Carey College reports plans to spend more than $2.5 million over the next seven months to transform its Coast campus into a daytime, residential program.

The 23-acre Coast campus has operated primarily as an evening school since Carey purchased the facilities from the Gulf Coast Military Academy in June of 1976. The evening school program will continue as it has for the last eight years.

The college also operates a school of nursing at Baptist Hospital in New Orleans.

Plans call for the construction of 100 apartment units at the back of the property, which faces the Gulf of Mexico, and the renovation of existing buildings to create additional classrooms, student activity facilities and faculty offices.

Rodney and Wiley Fairchild of Hattiesburg, long-time benefactors of the college, will build the $2.2 million apartment complex and will assist with financing for the project. Additional renovation of existing facilities is expected to cost about $200,000.

Each apartment will be designed to accommodate four single students or a married couple with one small child. The college is projecting a 75 percent occupancy rate during the 1985-86 academic year.

Construction, which will begin immediately, is expected to be completed by the opening of the fall semester on Aug. 28.

Along with the expanded physical plant, Carey will hire additional full-time faculty members for the Coast to expand its current undergraduate offerings in business, music, education, art and religion, and its graduate programs in business and education, said Carey president Dr. J. Ralph Noonkester.

Academic leaders at the college are in the process of determining which additional programs in arts and sciences will be offered on the Coast during the fall semester.

"The first year we will concentrate on freshmen/junior course offerings," Noonkester said, "and we will add sophomore and senior-level courses in the second year. We are not expecting senior students to transfer in to finish their last year at Carey on the Coast."

The expansion on the Coast would be unrealistic, Noonkester said, if the Mississippi Baptist Convention had not approved a $40 million endowment campaign last fall for the three Mississippi Baptist colleges and children's village. If successful, the five-year campaign will increase Carey's endowment by more than $11.5 million.

"An analysis was made of the operating budget by both boards (trustees and development) last week and even with the stringent budget operations of colleges today our interim budget report was the most encouraging of recent years," Noonkester said.

"We're launching this expansion from a position of a balanced budget and the prospect for greatly increased endowment holdings."

"The only possibility for the expansion of any college in Mississippi right now, in the midst of all the consolidation talk, is on the Gulf Coast."

School. Williams won fourth place with the poster slogan, "Be Bright at Night, All Right!" White won a fifth place award. His poster slogan was "Glow at Night." (CEHS photo by Lambert Boyd)

Colleges schedule Elderhostel

Mississippi College and Millsaps College, have set their spring and summer schedule for Elderhostel, a week-long, residential program of study for adults over 60. The two schools currently represent Mississippi in an international network of more than 700 participating institutions.

The goal of Elderhostel is to provide new learning experiences and friendships for adults over 60 and their traveling companions. Each week features three short-term courses especially designed for Elderhostelers, as well as involvement in the life of a college campus. The fee of $190 for the spring program and $195 for summer programs includes tuition, field trips, all extracurricular activities, and room and board on a college campus.

The state's only spring program is scheduled at Mississippi College the week of April 21-27 and will coincide with the college's eighth annual Shakespeare Festival and Madrigal Dinner. Other topics of study for the week include a physical fitness assessment featuring aquatic exercise at an indoor pool and lectures, films, and tours of Mississippi history and folklore.

Summer plans at Mississippi College include three weeks of Elderhostel. Each of the three programs will include a physical fitness course, combining exercise with a class assessment of nutritional and exercise needs.

Other courses of study will vary from week to week, but will include such topics as the Cold War, Mississippi architecture, use of the portable camera and video recorder, the Vicksburg campaign of the Civil War, and the Choctaw Indians of Mississippi. Field trips include a visit to the Vicksburg National Military Park and to the annual Choctaw Indian Fair.

Millsaps College is planning an Elderhostel for each of the four weeks during June and will spotlight various aspects of Mississippi history and culture. Courses of study for the first two programs include an analysis of the Civil War Campaign of Vicksburg and will feature a visit to the Vicksburg National Military Park. In addition, participants will study historic architecture of Mississippi and southern music from Foster to Presley.

The final two programs of Elderhostel at Millsaps College will offer a study of Mississippi legends and folklore, a discussion of folk music in the South, and a look at Mississippi authors, Eudora Welty and William Faulkner. The highlight of each of these weeks will be a bus trip to Rowan Oak, Faulkner's antebellum home.

Registrations for the spring program are now being accepted, with the registration period for summer opening in early 1985. All residential participants should register through the national office. A limited number of spaces in each program will be open to commuters, and those interested should contact the Office of Continuing Education at the college they wish to attend.

To receive further information about Elderhostel and Mississippi's programs, contact the state director, Dorothy Carpenter, by calling 924-9766 or by writing P.O. Box 4185, Mississippi College, Clinton, Miss. 39058.

DRUG QUIZ

by Curt Scarborough, Ph.D.
Used by permission; all rights reserved by DATE, St. Louis, Mo.

QUESTION - Aging need not be synonymous with illness. But at least 80% of the elderly do suffer from one or more chronic diseases, compared with only 40% of those under age 65. And since the favored way of dealing with many of these diseases is by medication, it is reasonable to assume that the elderly will use more drugs than will younger people, says a National Institute of Drug Abuse report on drug taking behavior of the elderly.

Which of these drugs is not commonly prescribed for the elderly?

- a) Darvon
- b) Librium
- c) Methadone
- d) Valium

ANSWER - The NIDA report says that twenty years ago, 70% of the legitimate drugs now on the market were not available. The three most prescribed drug groups for the elderly, says NIDA, are Valium and Librium, the tranquilizers, and the analgesic, Darvon. Methadone is a heroin substitute.

Correct answer - c.

For further information about alcohol and drug abuse write: Dr. Paul G. Jones, II, Executive Director, Christian Action Commission, P.O. Box 530, Jackson, MS 39205.

UNO honors Kastin

TAX BREAK '85 - David Birney is one of the hosts for "Tax Break '85," a special program detailing how to complete federal income tax returns, at 4 p.m., Sunday, March 10, on Mississippi ETV.

Dr. Abba J. Kastin, chief of the endocrinology section, Veterans Administration Medical Center, New Orleans, La., was recently awarded an honorary Doctor of Science degree from the University of New Orleans.

Approval for the degree was given by the Louisiana State University Board of Supervisors at its Dec. 14 meeting at the LSU System Building in Baton Rouge. UNO, a member of the LSU System, awarded the degree at its fall commencement ceremony Dec. 22. It was the fifth honorary degree ever given by UNO.

Citing Dr. Kastin's career as a biomedical research scientist in the field of brain peptides and his eight-year association with UNO, the Board said Dr. Kastin was honored "for his contributions to the University of New Orleans, the veterans of Louisiana, the State of Louisiana and society in general."

Hollywood Marquee

by James S. Leach

HOLLYWOOD — Tidbits from Tinseltown... For all of you fans of Jane Fonda's workout videos, have you ever wondered what the Queen of Sweat puts on her VCR when she wants to do a little private working out on her own?

My sources close to Jane tell me she currently enjoys a new video which features Raquel Welch teaching methods of relaxation through the practice of yoga. If you've seen any of Jane's demanding workout tapes, I'm sure you'll agree when I say it's about time the busy lady learned how to relax.

While I've still got you wondering about the stars, here's a couple more peeks into the private lives of some very public names.

Ever wonder what kind of music a big name talent like Stevie Wonder places on his turntable? Wonder no more about Mr. Wonder as he was recently spotted in a Hollywood record shop buying Tina Turner's hot LP, "Private Dancer."

Fans of Stacy Keach wonder, I'll bet, about what their favorite "Mike Hammer" is doing to pass the time while he's doing time in Reading Prison. While Hammer's in the slammer just out side London he's working in the prison as a trustee and librarian, as well as a lay reader in the prison church.

Keach, a good guy who suffers from bad luck and even worse judgement has received an invitation to speak before the House of Lords in London on the day of his release, which is scheduled for June 7. According to writer Robert Osborne, "Stacy is slated to talk on (what else?) drug rehabilitation."

I predict that once Stacy Keach has paid his debt to society, he'll bounce back and come out of this whole terrible experience with some very positive after effects. Take my word for it, Stacy Keach has far too much talent and charisma to disappear.

Another wonder you might have is what does the T-shirt have written on it that Eddie Murphy wears throughout the movie, "Beverly Hills Cop"? The shirt, similar to the ones worn in physical education classes all over America bears the stenciled words, "Mumford High School Phys. Ed. Department." To ease your next wonder, Mumford High School is located in suburban Detroit, close to where much of the early action in the blockbuster movie was filmed.

Officials at Mumford High say the shirts are selling like hot cakes. As the response to the flick grows so too do the orders for the shirts. With the profits you can bet Mumford High will be having one heck of a prom this year. Oh yeah, instead of tuxes for the guys, I'll bet they all show up as Eddie Murphy lookalikes. Just as long as they don't become Eddie Murphy sound-alikes. Come on Eddie, you've got too much talent to have it overshadowed by your obsession with four-letter words.

ELECTRONIC PROTECTION

Banking experts warn that your personal identification number (PIN) should never be written on the card that activates an Automated Teller Machine. And, they advise you not to select your birthdate, or other easily identified numerals; instead, choose random figures and memorize them. Since fraud is being committed, the bankers say it is not prudent to give PIN to anyone, and that includes bank employees who inquire. Check with an authority first.

DIET DOS — First of the year diets are flagging badly now as dieters try to maintain interest. One way is to psych yourself into sticking to it — the tried and true tricks of the "fat" photo on the refrigerator; buying something too small as an incentive; try new and different diet foods. These work, so employ them and reward yourself by getting a new hairdo, or the "works" at a beauty salon.

SHEER DELIGHT — Revive winter-stained sheer curtains by soaking them in the washer in cold water and a half cup of granulated dish detergent. Switch dishwashing powder through water; leave panels overnight. Run the machine through its cycle and let curtains air dry. A light misting with spray starch will restore them to a crisp finish.

SHADE SHAPE — You can also renew dingy window shades. Unroll and place on a flat surface. Most shades are plastic; wash in sections with detergent. Rinse, blot dry. Anchor edges to prevent curl and then after shade is dry, hang it full length. Later, rewind and lower shade to the length desired.

DIAMONDS ARE A... big investment, and if you want to be sure your dealer is reputable and the stones are as represented, send for a free kit, "Consumer Diamond Kit." Ask for it from: American Gem Society, 3460 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90010. © 1985 Suburban Features

Veterans Affairs Committee promises to 'move slowly' on proposed budget cuts

The Administration is proposing new policies to curtail eligibility and reduce benefits in the Veterans Administration health care program.

The Administration claims that these proposals, if adopted, would cut VA hospital operating and construction costs by more than $7.5 billion over the next five years.

According to the Administration, the reductions would occur as a result of imposing a health care eligibility means test upon certain non-service-connected veterans; repealing the law that now allows the VA to treat all non-service-connected veterans 65 years of age or older; a reduction in hospital construction; and billing insurance companies to recover costs from certain insured patients.

The Administration cites VA estimates that its annual health care operations and construction costs will be as high as $37 billion annually to care for a projected nine-million veterans over age 65 by the end of the next decade.

However, this figure is disputed by the VA's own report, Caring for the Older Veteran, which was issued in September. It places the cost between $17 billion and $27 billion.

The Administration proposes to adjust eligibility rules in order to limit demands on the system.

The House Committee on Veterans Affairs completed two days of hearings on the Administration's FY '86 budget proposals, during which time VA Administrator Harry Walters was questioned for almost three hours on health care and other issues.

Walters said that approximately 20,000 non-service-connected veterans seeking health care are being turned away each month. He added that, according to a Harris Survey commissioned by the VA, there is no indication that affluent veterans are using the system, a common misconception.

Under the Administration's plan, some veterans eligible for Medicare would be excluded from VA health care. Rep. Bob Edgar (D-PA), chairman of the Subcommittee on Hospitals and Health Care, said it would be "horrendous to take away earned medical benefits and place these veterans in the same category as those who did not serve their country, particularly when Medicare is already severely overburdened."

Walters said he supports the proposal, although reluctantly, to raise the VA home loan origination fee from 1 percent to 5 percent because it would cover a $400 million shortage expected in the home loan fund in FY '86.

The increase has been proposed for Federal Housing Administration home loans as well. Walters told the panel that he supports a five-percent pay decrease for VA employees, as long as it applies across the board to all federal employees.

Walters also told the committee that the proposal to consolidate VA regional offices into three locations did not come from the VA, but from the Office of Management and Budget.

Rep. G.V. (Sonny) Montgomery (D-MS), chairman of the committee, said that the panel should "move slowly" in considering the Administration's budget proposals.

"We recognize that we must share in the responsibility of cutting government spending, but I'm anxious to see what the other committees do," said Montgomery.

Montgomery said the proposed 4.1 percent increase in compensation for service-connected veterans is "the one bright spot" in the budget. "However," he added, "it goes downhill fast after that."

In testimony, the Veterans of Foreign Wars referred to the compensation Cost of Living Allowance as sugarcating for "an unprecedented assault on the Veterans Administration and its hospital and medical care system."

The Administration has previously suggested that it might freeze veterans' Cost of Living Allowances. It is generally accepted that veterans would not be adverse to such a move as long as other federal beneficiaries are included.

"Just this week, we offered several spectacular tributes to the veterans of Iwo Jima," said Montgomery. "Now the Administration is suggesting, through this recommended budget, that many of them, and other veterans, should look elsewhere for their health care. You can bet that we're going to proceed carefully as we review these proposals."

Legal secretaries eye duties as para-legals

Ann Bowden-Hollis, attorney with the law firm of Eaton, Cottrell, Galloway, Lang & Stone, addressed the Harrison-Hancock Legal Secretaries Association on the subject of "Shepardizing — The Secretary as Para-Legal."

Bowden-Hollis instructed the members on how to shepardize and stated that shepardizing cases of law answers the question as to whether or not a cited case has been reversed, overruled, dismissed, superseded, etc.

She also stated that the legal secretary should be able to help her attorney/boss in research for briefs and memorandums and shepardizing is one of these ways.

In other business, Jane Ungaro, scholarship chairman, presented this year's scholarship winners — $1,000 to Angela Belzer and $500 to Michael Hollis, the first male-recipient of this award from the chapter.

Hollis Carr, Homer Dedeaux and May Helen Terry were approved as judges for the Boss of the Year Contest.

Bosses' Night will be held this year on March 23 at 7 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, Courthouse Road, Gulfport.

Bosses' Night chairman is Ilyne Stewart.

Theme for this year will be a "50's Party with a sock hop."

Maria Cox, Sue Huffman, Nancy Bontemps and Glenda Downs will serve as chairmen of the various committees for Bosses' Night.

The legal education quiz was given by Patsy Bishop.

The NALS Advanced Course will be held through May 7, and The NALS course chairman, Debbie Butler, reported that she has a total of 15 enrolled so far for the course.

Legal directories are still on sale at a cost of $4 each by the chapter members.

Governor Ilyne Stewart reported on a MALS fall board meeting of governors in Laurel Jan. 26 and 27.

The next meeting of the chapter will be March 14 at the Beachfront Holiday Inn, Gulfport, 6:30 p.m.

Retirement Planning

People in the local area who plan to retire at the end of the year should take some time soon to think about Social Security retirement benefits. A Social Security representative said recently.

A person should apply for Social Security benefits 2 or 3 months before they plan to retire. This way, benefits can begin shortly after income from work stops.

Before applying, a person should get the necessary evidence together. This will save time at application time. The first item a person needs is his or her Social Security card or a record of the number.

Next, proof of age is required. Preferred proof is an official record of birth or baptism recorded before age 5. If this does not exist, other proofs can be submitted. The people at the local Social Security office can tell you what kinds of evidence can be used.

Records that might be used include school, church, State or Federal census, insurance policies, marriage, passports, employment, military service, children's birth certificates, union, immigration or naturalization. This is not an exclusive list and other records may be acceptable.

Forms W-2 or self-employment tax returns for the past 2 years should be provided. These are needed because recent earnings reports may not yet be in Social Security records.

A husband or wife who also plans to apply should have about the same documents. A marriage certificate may be required, but is not needed in all cases. Information about any previous marriages is also needed.

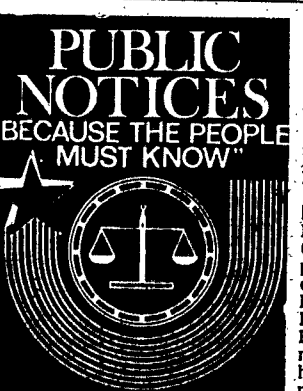

Birth certificates of any young, unmarried children should be obtained as well. Additional documentation may be required depending on the particulars of certain cases. The people at any Social Security office will be glad to answer questions about retirement applications.

The address and telephone number of the nearest Social Security office can be found in the telephone directory.

Civic group to fight Pas

BY DENA BISNETTE

Residents of Henderson Point, Pass Christian Isles and several other communities near Pass Christian have decided to fight annexation in court and at the polls.

About 150 people attended a meeting of the Henderson Point-Pass Christian Isles Civic Association Saturday afternoon to discuss the annexation proposal and how to fight it.

The annexation ordinance, passed by the city board on Feb. 5, effects an area extending north from Henderson Point and Pass Christian Isles to Bayou Portage, Bay Colony and Bal Moral subdivisions east to Mengé Avenue, north to Demourelle Road and East to the Long Beach city limits at Beatline Road.

The association opposes the annexation because its members feel the decision to annex is based on an inaccurate feasibility study, according to Gerald Roux, who chaired the meeting.

Speakers included Harrison County Sheriff Larkin Smith, association attorney Floyd Logan and association president James McQueen in

Bay school b teachers to re

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Bay St. Louis teachers voted Thursday night to stay out of school Monday, March 11, although the Bay St. Louis School Board scheduled a Staff Development Day for that day.

Approving the recommendation by Superintendent J. D. McCullough, the board voted four to one in favor of requiring teachers to return to school Monday or be in breach of contract.

McCullough told the approximately 30 teachers attending the special meeting that as far as the board was concerned everything was okay if the teachers would return to school Monday.

"While I concur with each teacher trying to get a raise in salary, we have the students of this school district to be concerned with," McCullough said.

Graduation is coming up, children want to pass to the next grade and there must be a total of 175 teaching days in before the next school year begins July 1, he added.
